RE: APPLICATIONS FOR MASTERS DEGREE PROGRAM IN RESPONSE TO CLIMATE CHANGE

Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA) Kenya Office presents its compliments to the Ministry of Public Service, Youth and Gender Affairs of the Republic of Kenya and has the honor to proffer to the Ministry details of the 2020 KOICA - Hallym Master's Degree Program in Response to Climate Change. The program will be held at the Graduate School of Global Cooperation, Hallym University, in the Republic of Korea, from August 05th, 2020, to December 29th, 2021.

In this regard, please find attached the Program Information (PI), as well as KOICA and Hallym application forms, for further information on the program. KOICA kindly requests the Ministry to nominate at least four (4) government/county officials or researchers/instructors in state institutes with Bachelor's Degree, preferably under the age of forty (40), and possessing two years of experience in the field. The applicants' medical reports should also be certified by authorized physicians as reflecting good health (pregnancy, any kind of contagious disease, or severe illness is regarded as a disqualifying factor for participation in the program). The University will subsequently select up to two (2) suitable participants subject to their document screening and interview results.

Completed application forms must be submitted to KOICA Kenya Office by March 13th, 2020. Kindly note that the deadline contained in the PI is for submission to KOICA Headquarters and is therefore not applicable to the Ministry.

KOICA avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Public Service, Youth and Gender Affairs of the Republic of Kenya the assurances of its highest consideration.

Sincerely,
